STUDENT ORCA CARD INFORMATION

GO WITH THE ORCA CARD. The Orca Card is a cost-effective way for students to get to/from school and other destinations. It is valid on all KC Metro, Kitsap, Sound, Pierce, Community, and Everett Transit bus service. The Orca Card is also valid on the Sounder Train and on selected Amtrak Cascades trains between Seattle and Everett as well as the Link Light Rail, Seattle Street Cars, and passenger only ferries to West Seattle.

Seattle Central College is well served by excellent bus service. Several Metro routes, including 9, 10, 49, and 60, provide direct bus service right to SEATTLE CENTRAL main campus on Broadway and E. Pine. In addition, Metro routes 8, 11 (125 from SW Seattle), and 43 are a mere block away. Please see below for additional information regarding each route.

- Route 9 from Columbia City/Rainier Beach operates during peak hours, as often as every 30 minutes during weekdays, and makes stops on Broadway and E. Pine Street.
- Routes 10 and 11 provide frequent (as often as every 7-10 minutes) and convenient service to campus from downtown Seattle and many areas of Capitol Hill, with stops on Broadway and E. Pine.
- Route 43 & Route 49 serve the University District, Capitol Hill and downtown, with stops at Broadway and E. John Street and Broadway and E. Pine.
- Route 60, departing from White Center to Beacon Hill and continuing to Capitol Hill, offers service, as often as every 30 minutes, with stops at Broadway and E. Pine.
- Route 125 travels between Shorewood, White Center, and downtown Seattle, with service as often as every 15 minutes. Route 125 also serves South Seattle Community College with stops on 16th Avenue SW. Once in downtown Seattle, Route 125 becomes Route 11 providing direct service to Seattle Central Community College, with stops at Broadway and E. Pine.
